NFL Internships 2026 / 2027 Apply Now

Description

The NFL Internship Program is designed to offer dynamic and motivated individuals a chance to immerse themselves in the operations of the National Football League. This is a highly competitive and rewarding opportunity for students and recent graduates who are passionate about sports, eager to learn, and excited to contribute to the world's most prominent football league.

Responsibilities

- Departmental Support: Interns will have the opportunity to work closely with various departments within the NFL, including but not limited to Marketing, Events, Public Relations, Digital Media, Finance, and Football Operations. Responsibilities may include research, data analysis, project management, and administrative support.
- Event Management: Support the planning, organization, and execution of NFL events, such as the NFL Draft, Super Bowl, and Pro Bowl. Assist in coordinating logistics, communication with vendors, and on-site event management.
- Content Creation: Contribute to content creation efforts, including writing articles, producing videos, and managing social media accounts. Help develop engaging content to connect with fans and promote the NFL brand.
- Research and Analysis: Conduct research and data analysis to aid in decision-making processes. Provide insights and recommendations to improve the NFL's performance and initiatives.
- Cross-Functional Collaboration: Collaborate with various teams and departments, gaining exposure to different aspects of the NFL's operations, including player development, marketing campaigns, and community outreach programs.
- Professional Development: Participate in professional development seminars, workshops, and networking opportunities. Learn from industry experts and gain insights into the world of sports management.
